MATHIS FLIGHT CLUB

Hand-picked fares & money-savers, every Saturday

Hi, it's Mathi here. How are you all, I spent my Saturday morning doing what I love most: digging through airline sales, coupon pages and fare glitches so you don't have to. This week's haul is genuinely good, and three of the best offers expire within days, so let's get straight to it.

Fresh offers I scouted for you

All verified today, 17 Oct. Coupon codes change fast, so grab these while they're live.

India to USA: up to Rs. 20,000 off

Air India's FLYUS sale takes up to Rs. 20,000 off base fares between India and the USA. Book on airindia.com by 22 Oct. Logged-in users stack an extra 15% off plus 50% off the convenience fee, and you get one free date change. If the US is on your list, this is the week.

FLYUS ends 22 Oct

Students: 10% off, ends 20 Oct

Both Air India (10% off domestic base fares) and Air India Express (flat 10% off Value fares + 25 kg baggage + Rs. 99 date changes) are running student offers till 20 Oct. Express bookings made directly also take an extra 5% off with code VIBES. Students paying Air India via UPI can add code UPIPROMO for up to Rs. 1,000 more off.

Deal sites compared: why Mathis Flight Club is a club, not a crowd ->

Google Flights, coupon pages, firehose blogs, flight clubs, I put them all side by side and explain exactly where we fit and why we stay small on purpose.

What is AirHelp, and how to use it without paying a rupee ->

Delayed or cancelled flight? AirHelp chases up to €600 from the airline and costs you nothing unless they win. Here's how to use it free.

That's the week. Three offers expire in the next five days, so don't sit on them. And if you grab a great fare, hit reply and tell me, nothing makes my day like a member's win.

Happy travels,
Mathi
